PREFATORY.

---

“SONGS OF THE MORNING,” so fresh and so sweet ;
On every page there is richness complete :
Nothing but pure, simple Gospel in song,
Gathered for each one—the old and the young.
Soul-stirring music is found on each page,
Off’rings of pleasure for noble and sage ;
Food for the right, and reproof to the wrong ;
Truth is the motto of each Gospel Song.
Hail to the “SONGS OF THE MORNING,” so sweet !
Each is a song of Salvation complete ;
Morning and noon and at eve we may sing
Of a dear Savior ;—to Him let us cling.
Resting, sweet resting, will come by and by ;
Nevermore, then, shall we sorrow or sigh :
In the sweet “SONGS OF THE MORNING,” we know,
Nothing was written for fame—but to show
God and His glory. AMEN.

Sing the Songs of the Morning.

J. B. C.

"In the midst of the church I will sing praise unto thee."—Heb. 2: 12.

I. BALTZELL.

1. O, come let us make the wel - kin ring, While we sing the SONGS OF THE MORNING; O,
2. O, come let us lift our voic - es high, While we sing the SONGS OF THE MORNING; All
3. Tho' life be a long and drear - y day, We will sing the SONGS OF THE MORNING; When

REFRAIN.
come let us worship Christ our King, While we sing the SONGS OF THE MORNING. Sing the SONGS o - ver the earth be this the cry, We will sing the SONGS OF THE MORNING.
heav'n and the earth shall pass away, We will sing the SONGS OF THE MORNING. Sing the SONGS OF THE MORNING,

OF THE MORN - ING, Hap-py, hap-py, hap-py, hap-py songs of praise, songs of praise.
Sing the SONGS OF THE MORN-ING,

There is Work in the Vineyard.

J. B. C.

'Lift up your eyes and look on the fields, for they are white already to harvest.'—John 5: 35.

I. BALTZELL.

1. There is work, there is work for the serv-ants of God, There is work for the faith-ful and true;
 2. There is work, there is work in the great harvest field, But the brave, stur-dy la-b'rers are few;
 3. There is work, there is work for the young and the old, There is something for each one to do;

'Twas the path-way of la - bor the Mas - ter hath trod, And there's work in the vine-yard for you.
 Will you stand i - dly by, when the truth is revealed That there's work in the vine-yard for you?
 You can gath - er the wan - der - ers in - to the fold—There is work in the vine-yard for you.

D. S. Will you stand i - dly by while the hours pass a - way? There is work in the vine - yard for you.

CHORUS.

There is work (there is work) in the vine-yard to do, There is work (there is work) for the faithful and true;

Jesus, Tender Savior.

"Who loved me and gave himself for me."—Gal. 1: 20.

ANON.

1. Je-sus, ten-der Sav-ior, Hast thou died for me? Make me ver-y thankful In my heart to thee.
2. When the saddest sto-ry Of thy grief I read; Make me ver-y sor-ry For my sins in-deed.
3. Soon I hope in glo-ry At thy feet to stand; Make me meet to see thee In that hap-py land.

He is Waiting Now to Save.

ANON.

"Him that cometh unto me I will in no wise cast out."—John 6: 37.

I. BALTZELL.

1. Sin-ners, Je-sus died for you; Can you doubt his love so true? Will you spurn him? O, be-ware!
 2. On the cross he bled and died, Sin-ner, see the cru-ci-fied! Can you turn from love like this,
 3. In the grave for you he laid, Wresting ter-rors from its bed, Then a-rose, as-cend-ed high;
 4. Come with us, to man-sions there; Give up sin, a crown to wear; Leave this world, a throne to gain;

CHORUS.

Lest he leave you in de-spair. Come, come, come, come,
 When he of-fers life and peace?
 Will you join him in the sky? Come to Je-sus, come to Je-sus, He will now re-ceive you,
 Fly to Christ, and with him reign.

Come, come, come, come,
 He will now re-lieve you; Come to Je-sus, come to Je-sus, He is wait-ing now to save.

7.

- 1 Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

8.

- 1 Jesus shall reign where'er the sun
Does his successive journeys run;
His kingdom spread from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

- 2 From north to south the princes meet,
To pay their homage at his feet;
While western empires own their Lord,
And savage tribes attend his word.

- 3 To him shall endless praise be made,
And endless praises crown his head;
His name, like sweet perfume, shall rise
With every morning sacrifice.

- 4 People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on his love with sweetest song,
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on his name.

9.

- 1 From all that dwell below the skies,
Let the Creator's praise arise;
Let the Redeemer's name be sung
Through every land, by every tongue.

- 2 Eternal are thy mercies, Lord;
Eternal truth attends thy word;
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore,
Till suns shall rise and set no more.

- 3 Your lofty themes, ye mortals, bring;
In songs of praise divinely sing;
The great salvation loud proclaim,
And shout for joy the Savior's name.

10.

- 1 O, render thanks to God above,
The fountain of eternal love;
Whose mercy firm, through ages past,
Hath stood, and shall forever last.

- 2 Who can his mighty deeds express,
Not only vast—but numberless?
What mortal eloquence can raise
His tribute of immortal praise?

- 3 Extend to me that favor, Lord,
Thou to thy chosen dost afford;
When thou return'st to set them free,
Let thy salvation visit me.

11.

- 1 My gracious Lord, I own thy right
To every service I can pay,
And call it my supreme delight
To hear thy dictates and obey.

- 2 What is my being, but for thee—
Its sure support, its noblest end,
'Tis my delight thy face to see,
And serve the cause of such a Friend.

- 3 'Tis to my Savior I would live,
To him who for my ransom died;
Nor could all worldly honor give
Such bliss as crowns me at his side.

Let the Blessed Savior In.

E. E. HEWITT.

"Behold, I stand at the door and knock."—Rev. 3: 20.

WM. J. KIRKPATRICK.

1. Who stands outside the closed door? Rise and let him in. Who is it knocking, o'er and o'er,
 2. It is the Savior calls to thee, Rise and let him in. He will come in and sup with thee,
 3. In patient love he pleading stands, Rise and let him in. The nail prints still are in his hands,
 4. O, why should he be waiting now, Rise and let him in. Thy Lord, with glory-circled brow,
 5. Be-ware! be-ware! un-do the door, Rise and let him in. Lest he should leave thee ever-more,

REFRAIN.

Rise and let him in. Let him in, Let him in, Let the blessed Savior
 Let him in, Let him in,

in; He is standing at the door, He is knocking o'er and o'er, Let the blessed Savior in.
 Let him in;

Retreat. L. M.

Dr. THOS. HASTINGS.

17.

- 1 From every stormy wind that blows,
From every swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm, a sure retreat;
'Tis found before the mercy-seat.
- 2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads—
A place of all on earth most sweet;
It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.
- 3 There is a scene where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend;
Tho' sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common mercy-seat.
- 4 There, there, on eagle wings we soar,
And sin and sense molest no more;
And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the mercy-seat.

- 1 Oh, that I could forever dwell
Delighted at the Saviour's feet,

Behold the form I love so well,
And all his tender words repeat!

- 2 The world shut out from all my soul,
And heaven brought in with all its bliss,
Oh! is there aught, from pole to pole,
One moment to compare with this?
- 3 This is the hidden life I prize,
A life of penitential love,
When most my follies I despise,
And raise my highest thoughts above.
- 4 Thus would I live till nature fail,
And all my former sins forsake;
Then rise to God within the veil,
And of eternal joys partake.

19.

- 1 Just as I am, without one plea,
But that thy blood was shed for me,
And that thou bid'st me come to thee,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

- 2 Just as I am, and waiting not,
To rid my soul of one dark blot,
To thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.
- 3 Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind,
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

20.

- 1 So let our lips and lives express
The holy gospel we profess;
So let our works and virtues shine,
To prove the doctrine all divine.
- 2 Thus shall we best proclaim abroad
The honors of our Saviour God,
When his salvation reigns within,
And grace subdues the power of sin.
- 3 Religion bears our spirits up,
While we expect that blessed hope,
The bright appearance of the Lord;
And faith stands leaning on his word.

Pardon at the Cross.

M. E. SERVOS.

"The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanse us from all sin."—1 John 1: 7.

E. S. LORENZ.

Slowly.

1. 'Mid the mire and the clay Of the sinner's dark way I saw naught for my soul but its loss;
 2. Though by e-vil beguiled, And by sin so de-filed That to per-ish was all I could claim;
 3. O, the joy and the peace Of this per-fect re-lease! How my heart in its rapt-ure would sing!

Till an an-gel of light Whispered down thro' the night, "There is par-don for thee at the cross."
 Yet the Ho-ly One died In his love to pro-vide For my cleansing from sin and from shame.
 But this tongue is too tame The just praise to pro-claim Of my Sav-ior, Re-deem-er and King.

D. S. For the Sav-ior has died In his love to pro-vide For a par-don for me at the cross.

CHORUS.

There is par-don for me, There is par-don for me, There is par-don for me at the cross;

I am Coming, Lord, to Thee.

W. A. OGDEN.

"In returning, ye shall be saved."—Isa. 30: 15.

W. A. OGDEN.

Earnestly.

1. I am coming, Lord, to Thee, with a trembling heart, I am coming with my soul dis-tress;
 2. I am coming, Lord, to Thee, with my load of sin, I am coming, weary, faint, and sore.
 3. I am coming, Lord, to Thee, but my faith is weak, I am coming, wilt Thou hear my cry?

To Thy promise now I fly, Leave, O, leave me not to die, I am coming, Lord, to Thee, for rest.
 Tho' I've sliighted oft Thy grace, And have turned from Thee my face, I am coming, Lord, to roam no more.
 I have heard Thy gracious call, At Thy loving feet I fall, I am coming, tho' I faint and die.

Keep On Praying.

FRANK M. DAVIS.

"Evening, morning, and at noon will I pray."—Ps. lv: 17.

FRANK M. DAVIS.

1. Keep on pray-ing, brother, press brave-ly on, Je - sus will aid you in the work be - gun.
 2. Make your ar-mor faith and pray'r all the way, Trust in the promise of a bet - ter day.
 3. Cling to Je - sus for your friend and your guide, O, there is safe - ty when He's by your side.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. The voice part is on a single staff in D minor (two flats) and 4/4 time. It features three verses of lyrics. The piano accompaniment is on a single staff in D minor, providing harmonic support with chords and moving lines.

CHORUS.

Keep on work-ing till the day is done, Keep on pray-ing till the crown is won.

The musical score for the chorus is written for voice and piano. The voice part is on a single staff in D minor and 4/4 time. The piano accompaniment is on a single staff in D minor, providing harmonic support with chords and moving lines.

26.

1 Thus far the Lord hath led me on,
Thus far his power prolongs my days;
And every evening shall make known
Some fresh memorial of his grace.

2 I lay my body down to sleep;
Peace is the pillow for my head;
While well-appointed angels keep Their watchful stations round my bed.

3 Thus, when the night of death shall come, [ground,
My flesh shall rest beneath the
And wait thy voice to rouse my tomb,
With sweet salvation in the sound.

27.

1 Go, labor on; spend and be spent,—
Thy joy to do the Father's will;
It is the way the Master went;
Should not the servant tread it still?

2 Go, labor on; 'tis not for naught;
Thine earthly loss is heavenly gain;
Men heed thee, love thee, praise thee not,
The Master praises—what are men?

3 Go, labor on; enough, while here,
If he shall praise thee, if he deign
Thy willing heart to mark and cheer;
No toil for him shall be in vain,

4 Toil on, and in thy toil rejoice;
For toil comes rest, for exile home;
Soon shalt thou hear the Bridegroom's voice,
The midnight peal,—“Behold! I come!”

28.

1 Lord of all being! throned afar,
Thy glory flames from sun and star;
Center and soul of every sphere,
Yet to each loving heart how near!

2 Sun of our life! thy quickening ray
Sheds on our path the glow of day;
Star of our hope! thy softened light,
Cheers the long watches of the night.

3 Our midnight is thy smile withdrawn;
Our noontide is thy gracious dawn;
Our rainbow arch thy mercy's sign;
All, save the clouds of sin, are thine.

4 Lord of all life, below, above!—
Whose light is truth, whose warmth is love,
Before thine ever-blazing throne
We ask no luster of our own,

29.

1 When I survey the wondrous cross,
On which the Prince of Glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.

2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ, my God;
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his blood,

3 See, from his head, his hands, his feet;
Sorrow and love flow mingled down;
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

4 Were all the realms of nature mine,
That were a present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

One Day Nearer Home.

ANON.

"For now is our salvation nearer than when we believed."—Rom. 13: 11.

I. BALTZELL.

1. O'er the hills the sun is set-ting, And the eve is drawing on; Slow-ly drops the gen-tle twi-light,
 2. "One day nearer," sings the mariner, As he glides the waters o'er, While the light is soft-ly dy-ing
 3. Worn and weary, oft the pil-grim Hails the set-ting of the sun; For the goal is one day near-er,
 4. Nearer home, yes, one day near-er To our Father's house on high; To the green fields and the fountains

For an-oth-er day is gone. Gone for aye—its race is o-ver, Soon the dark-er shades will come;
 On his distant na-tive shore. Thus the Christian on life's o-cean, As his light boat euts the foam,
 And his journey nearly done. Thus we feel when o'er life's des-ert, Heart and sandal sore we roam;
 Of the land beyond the sky. Lo! the heav'n's grow brighter o'er us, And the lamp hangs in the dome;

REFRAIN.

Still 'tis sweet to know at e-ven, "We are one day near-er home." Near - - er home,
 In the even-ing eries with rap-ture—"I am one day near-er home."
 As the twi-light gath-ers o'er us, "We are one day near-er home."
 And our tents are pitched still closer, "We are one day near-er home." Nearer home; yes, nearer home,

More Love to Thee.

"I will love thee, O Lord, my strength."—Psa. 18: 1.

Mrs. E. PRENTISS.

I. BALTZELL.

1. More love to Thee, O Christ! More love to Thee; Hear Thou the pray'r I make On bend-ed knee;
2. Once earth-ly joys I craved, Sought peace and rest; Now Thee a-lone I seek, Give what is best;
3. Let sor-row do its work, Send grief and pain; Sweet are Thy mes-sen-gers, Sweet their re-frain;
4. Then shall my lat-est breath, Whis-per Thy praise, This be the part-ing cry My heart shall raise;

This is my ear-nest plea, More love, O Christ, to Thee, More love to Thee! More love to Thee!
This all my pray'r shall be, More love, O Christ, to Thee, More love to Thee! More love to Thee!
When they can sing with me, More love, O Christ, to Thee, More love to Thee! More love to Thee!
This still its pray'r shall be: More love, O Christ, to Thee, More love to Thee! More love to Thee!

35.

1 Majestic sweetness sits enthroned
Upon the Saviour's brow;
His head with radiant glories crowned,
His lips with grace o'erflow.

2 He saw me plunged in deep distress,
He flew to my relief;
For me he bore the shameful cross,
And carried all my grief.

3 To him I owe my life and breath,
And all the joys I have;
He makes me triumph over death,
He saves me from the grave.

36.

1 Salvation! O the joyful sound!
What pleasure to our ears;
A sov'reign balm for every wound,
A cordial for our fears.

2 Salvation! let the echo fly
The spacious world around,
While all the armies of the sky
Conspire to raise the sound.

3 Salvation! O thou bleeding Lamb!
To thee the praise belongs;
Salvation shall inspire our hearts,
And dwell upon our tongues.

37.

1 When I can read my title clear
To mansions in the skies,
I'll bid farewell to every fear,
And wipe my weeping eyes.

2 Should earth against my soul engage,
And fiery darts be hurled,
Then I can smile at Satan's rage,
And face a frowning world.

3 Let cares like a wild deluge come,
Let storms of sorrow fall,—
So I but safely reach my home,
My God, my heaven, my all.

38.

1 Forever here my rest shall be,
Close to thy bleeding side:
'Tis all my hope and all my plea,
"For me the Saviour died."

2 Wash me and make me thus thine own,
Wash me and mine thou art!
Wash me, but not my feet alone,
My hands, my head, my heart!

3 Th' atonement of thy blood apply,
Till faith to sight improve,
Till hope in full fruition die,
And all my soul be love.

39.

1 O for a thousand tongues to sing
My great Redeemer's praise;
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of his grace.

2 My gracious Master and my God,
Assist me to proclaim,—
To spread through all the earth abroad
The honors of thy name.

3 Jesus!—the name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease;
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life, and health, and peace.

The Cross is My Anchor.

"Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul."—Heb. 6: 19.

ANON.

E. S. LORENZ.

1. The cross is my anchor! tho' wave fol-low wave, Tho' frail be my ves-sel, this anchor shall save;
 2. The cross is my anchor! all storms soon shall cease, My ves-sel, tho' frail, reach the haven of peace;
 3. The cross is my anchor! I now hear his voice; It bids me to fear not, but trust and re-joice;

The cross is my anchor! 'tis stead-y and sure With-in the veil hold-ing all storms I en-dure.
 No storm or dis-as-ter I ev-er shall fear; When danger's extreme, then my Sav-ior is near.

1 How sweet, how heavenly is the sight,
When those who love the Lord
In one another's peace delight,
And so fulfill his word!

2 When each can feel his brother's sigh,
And with him bear a part;
When sorrow flows from eye to eye,
And joy from heart to heart:—

3 When free from envy, scorn, and pride,
Our wishes all above,
Each can his brother's failings hide,
And show a brother's love;—

4 When love, in one delightful stream,
Through every bosom flows!
When union sweet, and dear esteem,
In every action glows.

46.

1 Father, whate'er of earthly bliss
Thy sovereign will denies,
Accepted at thy throne of grace,
Let this petition rise:

Give me a calm, a thankful heart,
From every murmur free;
The blessings of thy grace impart,
And make me live to thee.

3 Let the sweet hope that thou art mine
My life and death attend;
Thy presence thro' my journey shine,
And crown my journey's end.

47.

1 The Saviour bids us watch and pray
Through life's brief, fleeting hour,
And gives the Spirit's quickening ray
To those who seek his power.

2 The Saviour bids us watch and pray,
Maintain a warrior's strife;
Help, Lord, to hear thy voice to-day;
Obedience is our life.

3 The Saviour bids us watch and pray,
For soon the hour will come
That calls us from the earth away
To our eternal home.

4 O Saviour, we would watch and pray,
And hear thy sacred voice,
And walk, as thou hast marked the way,
To heaven's eternal joys.

48.

1 Why should our tears in sorrow flow
When God recalls his own,
And bids them leave a world of woe
For an immortal crown?

2 Is not e'en death a gain to those Whose life to God was given?
Gladly to earth their eyes they close,
To open them in heaven.

3 Their toils are past, their work is done,
And they are fully blest;
They fought the fight, the victory won,
And entered into rest.

4 Then let our sorrows cease to flow;
God has recalled his own;
But let our hearts, in every woe,
Still say, "Thy will be done."

64.

1 Jesus, the Name high o'er all,
In hell, or earth, or sky;
Angels and men before it fall,
And devils fear and fly.

2 Jesus, the Name to sinners dear—
The Name to sinners given—
It scatters all their guilty fear;
It turns their hell to heaven.

3 Oh, that the world might taste and see
The riches of his grace;
The arms of love that compass me,
Would all mankind embrace.

65.

1 Give me the wings of faith, to rise
Within the veil, and see
The saints above, how great their joys,
How bright their glories be.

2 Once they were mourners here below
And poured out cries and tears;
They wrestled hard, as we do now,
With sins, and doubts, and fears.

3 I ask them whence their vic'try came;
They, with united breath,
Ascribe their conquest to the Lamb,
Their triumph to his death.

With angels round the throne;
Ten thousand thousand are their
But all their joys are one. [tongues,

To be exalted thus;
Worthy the Lamb, our hearts reply,
For he was slain for us.

3 The whole creation join in one,
To bless the sacred Name
Of Him that sits upon the throne,
And to adore the Lamb.

67.

1 Return, O wanderer, return,
And seek thy Father's face;
Those new desires which in thee burn
Were kindled by his grace.

2 Return, O wanderer, return,
He hears thy humble sigh;
He sees thy softened spirit mourn,
When no one else is nigh.

3 Return, O wanderer, return,
Thy Saviour bids thee live;
Come to his cross, and grateful learn
How freely he'll forgive.

68.

1 Jesus, the very thought of thee
With sweetness fills the breast;
But sweeter far thy face to see,
And in thy presence rest.

2 No voice can sing, no heart can frame,
Nor can the memory find
A sweeter sound than Jesus' name,
The Saviour of mankind.

O Joy of all the meek,
To those who ask, how kind thou art,
How good to those who seek.

1 O for a faith that will not shrink,
Though pressed by every foe,
That will not tremble on the brink
Of any earthly woe;

2 That will not murmur of complain
Beneath the chast'ning rod,
But, in the hour of grief or pain,
Will lean upon its God.

1 Come, Holy Spirit, Heavenly Dove,
With all thy quickening powers;
Kindle a flame of heavenly love
In these cold hearts of ours.

2 Dear Lord, and shall we ever live
At this poor dying rate?
Our love so faint, so cold to thee,
And thine to us so great?

3 Come, Holy Spirit, Heavenly Dove,
With all thy quickening powers;
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

76.

1 O for a heart to praise my God,
A heart from sin set free:—
A heart that always feels thy blood,
So freely spilt for me:—

2 A heart resigned, submissive, meek,
My great Redeemer's throne;
Where only Christ is heard to speak,
Where Jesus reigns alone.

3 A heart in every thought renewed,
And full of love divine;
Perfect and right, and pure, and good,
A copy, Lord, of thine.

1 O for a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame;
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb!

2 Return, O Holy Dove, return,
Sweet messenger of rest!
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.

3 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.

Uttered or unexpressed;
The motion of a hidden fire
That trembles in the breast.

The upward glancing of an eye,

His watchword at the gates of death;
He enters heaven with prayer.

Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt mine eyes to tears.

- 3 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"I am this dark world's Light;
Look unto me; thy morn shall rise,
And all thy day be bright."

I looked to Jesus, and I found,
In him, my Star, my Sun;
And, in that light of life, I'll walk
Till traveling days are done.

94.

- 1 Sing to the Lord Jehovah's name,
And in his strength rejoice;
When his salvation is our theme,
Exalted be our voice.
- 2 With thanks approach his awful sight,
And psalms of honor sing;
The Lord's a God of boundless might—
The whole creation's King.
- 3 Come, and with humble souls adore;
Come, kneel before his face;
Oh, may the creatures of his power
Be children of his grace!
- 4 Now is the time—he bends his ear,
And waits for your request;
Come, lest he rouse his wrath, and swear,
"Ye shall not see my rest."

I. BALTZELL.

1. Hear the voice of the Lord, Say - ing in his ho - ly word, “Son, go work in my vineyard to - day.”
 2. Oh, ye brave men and true, Hear the Sa - vior ealling you: “Son, go work in my vineyard to - day.”
 3. Will you list to his voice? Will you make his work your choice? Will you work in his vineyard to-day?

Lo! the fields, far and near, white for har-vest-ing ap-pear: “Son, go work in my vineyard to - day.”
 For the har - vest is great and the la - bor - ers are few: “Son, go work in my vineyard to - day.”
 Will you say: Blessed Lord, I am com-ing at thy word, I will work in thy vineyard to - day.

100.

1 Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

2 Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares.

We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

101.

1 How helpless nature lies,
Unconscious of her load!
The heart unchanged can never rise
To happiness and God.

2 Can aught but power divine
The stubborn will subdue?
'Tis thine, eternal Spirit, thine
To form the heart anew,

3 O change these hearts of ours,
And give them life divine;
Then shall our passions and our Almighty Lord, be thine. [powers,

102.

1 Did Christ o'er sinners weep?
And shall our cheeks be dry?
Let floods of penitential grief
Burst forth from every eye.

2 The Son of God in tears
The wondering angels see;
Be thou astonished, O my soul,
He shed those tears for thee.

3 He wept that we might weep;
Each sin demands a tear;
In heaven alone no sin is found,
And there's no weeping there.

103.

1 O for the death of those
Who slumber in the Lord!
O be like theirs my last repose,
Like theirs my last reward.

2 Their bodies in the ground,
In silent hope may lie,
Till the last trumpet's joyful sound
Shall call them to the sky.

3 Their ransomed spirits soar,
On wings of faith and love,
To meet the Saviour they adore,
And reign with him above.

104.

1 O where shall rest be found,
Rest for the weary soul?
'Twere vain the ocean's depths to sound,
Or pierce to either pole,

2 The world can never give
The bliss for which we sigh;
'Tis not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die.

3 Beyond this vale of tears
There is a life above,
Unmeasured by the flight of years;
And all that life is love.

130.

1 Jesus, lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly,
While the raging billows roll,
While the tempest still is high;
Hide me, O, my Saviour, hide,
Till the storm of life is past;
Safe into the haven guide;
O, receive my soul at last.

2 Other refuge have I none;
Hangs my helpless soul on thee;
Leave, O, leave me not alone;
Still support and comfort me;
All my trust on thee is stayed;
All my help from thee I bring;
Cover my defenseless head
With the shadow of thy wing.

3 Plenteous grace with thee is found,
Grace to cover all my sin;
Let the healing streams abound;
Make and keep me pure within.
Thou of life the fountain art;
Freely let me take of thee;
Spring thou up within my heart;
Rise to all eternity.

131.

1 Earth has nothing sweet or fair,
Lovely forms or beauties rare,
But before my eyes they bring
Christ, of beauty Source and Spring.
When the morning paints the skies,
When the golden sunbeams rise,
Then my Saviour's form I find
Brightly imaged on my mind.

2 When I see in spring-tide gay,
Fields their varied tints display,
Wakes the thrilling thought in me,—
What must their Creator be?
Lord of all that's fair to see,
Come, reveal thyself to me;
Let me, 'mid thy radiant light,
See thine unveiled glories bright.

132.

1 Children of the heavenly King,
As we journey let us sing;
Sing our Saviour's worthy praise,
Glorious in his works and ways.
We are trav'ling home to God,
In the way our fathers trod;
They are happy now, and we
Soon their happiness shall see.

2 Fear not, brethren, joyful stand
On the borders of our land;
Jesus Christ, our Father's Son,
Bids us undismayed go on.
Lord! obediently we'll go,
Gladly leaving all below;
Only thou our leader be,
And we still will follow thee.

133.

1 Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in thee;
Let the water and the blood
From thy wounded side which flow'd,
Be of sin the double cure—
Save from wrath and make me pure.

2 Could my tears forever flow,
Could my zeal no languor know;
These for sin could not atone;
Thou must save, and thou alone,
In my hand no price I bring,
Simply to thy cross I cling.

3 While I draw this fleeting breath,
When my eyes shall close in death,
When I rise to worlds unknown,
And behold thee on thy throne,—
Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in thee.

1 Come, thou Fount of every blessing,
Tune my heart to sing thy grace;
Streams of mercy, never ceasing,
Call for songs of loudest praise;
Teach me some melodious sonnet,
Sung by flaming tongues above;
Praise the mount—I'm fixed upon it,
Mount of thy redeeming love.

2 Here I raise my Ebenezer;

Hither by thy help I come;
And I hope, by thy good pleasure
Safely to arrive at home;
Jesus sought me, when a stranger,
Wandering from the fold of God;
He, to rescue me from danger,
Interposed his precious blood.

3 O to grace how great a debtor
Daily I'm constrained to be!
Let thy goodness, like a fetter,
Bind my wandering heart to thee;
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it,
Prone to leave the God I love,
Here's my heart, Lord, take and seal it,
Seal it for thy courts above.

149.

1 Hark! the voice of Jesus calling,
"Who will go and work to-day?
Fields are white and harvests waiting,
Who will bear the sheaves away?"
Loud and long the Master calleth,
Rich reward he offers free;
Who will answer, gladly saying,
"Here am I, send me, send me!"

2 Let none hear you idly saying,
"There is nothing I can do,
While the souls of men are dying,
And the Master calls for you:
Take the task he gives you gladly;
Let his work your pleasure be;
Answer quickly, when he calleth,
"Here am I, send me, send me!"

Much we need thy tender care;
In thy pleasant pastures feed us,
For our use thy folds prepare:

Thou hast bought us, thine we are:]

2 We are thine, do thou befriend us,
Be the guardian of our way;
Keep thy flock, from sin defend us,
Seek us when we go astray:

Hear, O hear us, when we pray:]

151.

1 Jesus, I my cross have taken,
All to leave, and follow thee;
Naked, poor, despised, forsaken,
Thou, from hence, my all shalt be:
Perish, every fond ambition,
All I've sought, and hoped, and known;
Yet how rich is my condition,
God and heaven are still my own!

2 Let the world despise and leave me, [;
They have left my Saviour, too;
Human hearts and looks deceive me;
Thou art not, like man, untrue;
And, while thou shalt smile upon me,

Foes may hate, and friends may shun
me,
Show thy face, and all is bright.

"Having made peace through the blood of the cross."—Col. 1: 20.

E. S. LORENZ.

1. O the peace of God, how it thrills my soul, As its waves of rapture o'er my glad heart roll;
2. When the cross shines out to the grop-ing heart, How the clouds of sin are brok-en, swift de-part;
3. As the riv-er flows so se-rene and deep, So this tide of peace me ev-er on shall sweep;
4. In the way of peace Christ will guide our feet, Till as King of Peace we all his face shall greet;

All my dark-ness gone, all my doubts at rest, I have found my Sav-ior, I am ful-ly blest.
 And the sun shines out with its heav-en-ly ray, For the night of sor-row now has passed a-way.
 Its re-fresh-ing waves shall my soul re-store, And its burn-ing lips shall parch with thirst no more.
 For with gos-pel peace are our feet well shod, And the way is paved with promis-es of God.

CARL MARIA VON WEBER.

157.

1 Praise the Lord; ye heavens! adore him;

Praise him, angels in the height!
Sun and moon! rejoice before him;
Praise him, all ye stars of light!

2 Praise the Lord, for he hath spoken;
Worlds his mighty voice obeyed;
Laws, which never shall be broken,
For their guidance he hath made.

3 Praise the Lord, for he is glorious;
Never shall his promise fail;
God hath made his saints victorious;
Sin and death shall not prevail.

Praise the God of our salvation,
Hosts on high his power proclaim;
Heaven and earth, and all creation!
Laud and magnify his name.

158.

1 There's a fullness in God's mercy,
Like the fullness of the sea;
There's a kindness in his justice,
Which is more than liberty.

2 There's no place where earthly sorrows
Are more felt than up in heaven;
There's no place where earthly failings
Have such kindly judgment given.

3 For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of man's mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.

4 If our love were but more simple,
We should take him at his word;
And our lives would be all sunshine
In the sweetness of our Lord.

159.

1 Sweet the moments, rich in blessing,
Which before the cross I spend,
Life, and health, and peace possessing
From the sinner's dying Friend.

2 Here I'll rest forever viewing
Mercy poured in streams of blood:
Precious drops, my soul bedewing,
Plead and claim my peace with God.

3 Lord, in ceaseless contemplation
Fix my thankful heart on thee,
Till I taste thy full salvation,
And thine unveil'd glory see.

160.

1 In the cross of Christ I glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time;
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.

2 When the woes of life o'ertake me,
Hopes deceive, and fears annoy,
Never shall the cross forsake me;
Lo! it glows with peace and joy.

3 When the sun of bliss is beaming
Light and love upon my way,
From the cross the radiance streaming
Adds more luster to the day.

4 Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
By the cross are sanctified;
Peace is there that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.

- 1 Zion stands with hills surrounded,
Zion, kept by power divine;
All her foes shall be confounded,
Though the world in arms combine;
Happy Zion,
What a favored lot is thine!

- 2 Every human tie may perish,
Friend to friend unfaithful prove;
Mothers cease their own to cherish,
Heaven and earth at last remove;
But no changes
Can attend Jehovah's love.

- 3 In the furnace God may prove thee,
Thence to bring thee forth more bright,
But can never cease to love thee;
Thou art precious in his sight;
God is with thee—
God, thine everlasting light.

167.

- 1 Guide me, O thou great Jehovah!
Pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but thou art mighty;
Hold me with thy powerful hand;
Bread of heaven,
Feed me till I want no more.
- 2 Open thou the crystal fountain
Whence the healing waters flow;
Let the fiery, cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through;
Strong Deliverer,
Be thou still my strength and shield.

- 3 When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid the swelling stream divide;
Death of death, and hell's destruction,
Land me safe on Canaan's side;
Songs of praises
I will ever give to thee.

168.

- 1 Come, ye sinners, poor and needy,
Weak and wounded, sick and sore;
Jesus ready stands to save you,
Full of pity, love and power:
He is able,
He is willing: doubt no more.

- 2 Now, ye needy, come and welcome;
God's free bounty glorify,
True belief and true repentance,—
Every grace that brings you nigh:
Without money,
Come to Jesus Christ and buy.

- 3 Let not conscience make you linger,
Nor of fitness fondly dream;
All the fitness he requireth
Is to feel your need of him:
This he gives you,—
'Tis the Spirit's glimmering beam.

- 4 Come, ye weary, heavy-laden,
Bruised and mangled by the fall;
If you tarry 'till you better,
You will never come at all:
Not the righteous,—
Sinners, Jesus came to call.

169.

- 1 In thy name, O Lord, assembling,
We, thy people, now draw near;
Teach us to rejoice with trembling;
Speak, and let thy servants hear;
Hear with meekness,
Hear thy word with godly fear.

- 2 While our days on earth are length-
ened,
May we give them, Lord, to thee;
Cheered by hope, and daily strength-
ened,
May we run, nor weary be,
Till thy glory
Without cloud in heaven we see.

170.

- 1 Lord, dismiss us with thy blessing,
Fill our hearts with joy and peace;
Let us each, thy love possessing,
Triumph in redeeming grace;
O, refresh us!
Traveling through the wilderness.

- 2 Thanks we give, and adoration,
For thy gospel's joyful sound;
May the fruits of thy salvation
In our hearts and lives abound;
May thy presence
With us evermore be found.

- 3 So, when'er the signal's given
Us from earth to call away,
Borne on angels' wings to heaven,
Glad the summons to obey,
May we ever
Reign with Christ in endless day.

176.

- 1 Stand up! stand up for Jesus!
Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high his royal banner,
It must not suffer loss;
From victory unto victory
His army shall he lead,
Till every foe is vanquished,
And Christ is Lord indeed.

2 Stand up! stand up for Jesus!

The trumpet call obey;
Forth to the mighty conflict,
In this his glorious day;
Ye that are men, now serve him,
Against unnumbered foes;
Your courage rise with danger,
And strength to strength oppose.

3 Stand up! stand up for Jesus!

Stand in his strength alone;
The arm of flesh will fail you—
Ye dare not trust your own.
Put on the gospel armor,
And, watching unto prayer,
Where duty calls, or danger,
Be never wanting there.

4 Stand up! stand up for Jesus!

The strife will not be long;
This day the noise of battle;
The next the victor's song;
To him that overcometh.
A crown of life shall be;
He, with the King of glory,
Shall reign eternally.

177.

- 1 The morning light is breaking,
The darkness disappears;
The sons of earth are waking
To penitential tears;
Each breeze that sweeps the ocean
Brings tidings from afar,
Of nations in commotion,
Prepared for Zion's war.

2 Rich dews of grace come o'er us,

In many a gentle shower,
And brighter scenes before us
Are opening every hour;
Each cry to heaven going
Abundant answers brings;
And heavenly gales are blowing,
With peace upon their wings.

3 Blest river of salvation,

Pursue thine onward way;
Flow thou to every nation,
Nor in thy richness stay.
Stay not till all the lowly
Triumphant reach their home;
Stay not till all the holy Proclaim, "The Lord is come."

178.

- 1 When shall the voice of singing
Flow joyfully along?
When hill and valley ringing
With one triumphant song;
Proclaim the contest ended,
And him, who once was slain,
Again to earth descended,
In righteousness to reign!

2 Then from the craggy mountains

The sacred shout shall fly,
And shady vales and fountains
Shall echo the reply;
High tower and lowly dwelling
Shall send the chorus round,
The hallelujah swelling
In one eternal sound.

179.

1 Unfurl the Temp'rance Banner,

And fling it to the breeze,
And let the glad hosanna
Sweep over land and seas;
To God be all the glory
For what we now behold—
Oh, let the cheering story
In every ear be told.

2 The drunkard shall not perish

In Alcohol's dire chain,
But wife and children cherish
Within his home again;
And sobered men, repenting,
Will bow at Jesus' feet,
Their thankful hearts relenting
Before the mercy-seat.

3 A new-waked zeal is burning

In this and every land,
And thousands now are turning
To join our tem'rance band;
The light of truth is shining
In many a darkened soul;
Ere long its rays combining
Will blaze from pole to pole.

Fly to the fountain, Fly to the fountain, Fly to the fountain, Flowing for you and me.
Fly with me to the fountain, Fly with me to the fountain, Fly with me to the fountain,

2 That sacred fountain filled with blood, Lies open night and day; All who will plunge beneath the flood, Wash all their sins away.	3 This fountain cleanses from all sin, And purifies the soul; Yes, Jesus blood will keep us clean, And sanctify the whole.	4 "Ho! every one," the prophet cries, For every one there's room; "Ho! every one," my soul replies, "Now to the fountain come."

1 From Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strand,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand;
From many an ancient river,
From many a palmy plain,
They call us to deliver
Their land from error's chain.

2 Shall we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high—
Shall we, to men benighted,
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation, O salvation!
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till earth's remotest nation
Has learned Messiah's name.

3 Waft, waft, ye winds, his story,
And you, ye waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole;
Till o'er our ransom'd nature
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign.

186.

1 How beauteous, on the mountains,
The feet of him that brings,
Like streams from living fountains,
Good tidings of good things;
That publisheth salvation,
And jubilee release,
To every tribe and nation,
God's reign of joy and peace!

2 Lift up thy voice, oh, watchman!
And shout, from Zion's towers,
Thy hallelujah chorus,—
"The victory is ours!"
The Lord shall build up Zion
In glory and renown,
And Jesus, Judah's lion,
Shall wear his rightful crown.

3 Break forth in hymns of gladness;
Oh, waste Jerusalem!
Let songs, instead of sadness,
Thy jubilee proclaim;
The Lord, in strength victorious,
Upon thy foes hath trod;
Behold, oh, earth! the glorious
Salvation of our God!

187.

1 Our country's voice is pleading,
Ye men of God, arise!
His providence is leading,
The land before you lies;
Day-gleams are o'er it brightening,
And promise clothes the soil;
Wide fields, for harvest whitening,
Invite the reaper's toil.

2 Go where the waves are breaking
On California's shore,
Christ's precious gospel taking,
More rich than golden ore;
On Alleghany's mountains,
Through all the western vale,
Beside Missouri's fountains,
Rehearse the wondrous tale.

3 The love of Christ unfolding,
Speed on from east to west,
Till all, his cross beholding,
In him are fully blest.
Great Author of salvation,
Haste, haste the glorious day,
When we, a ransomed nation,
Thy sceptre shall obey.

- 1 My faith looks up to thee,
Thou Lamb of Calvary,
Saviour divine!
Now hear me while I pray,
Take all my guilt away,
O, let me from this day
Be wholly thine.
- 2 May thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire;
As thou hast died for me,
O, may my love to thee
Pure, warm, and changeless be,
A living fire.
- 3 While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be thou my guide;
Bid darkness turn to day,
Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From thee aside.

- 1 Come, thou Almighty King!
Help us thy name to sing,
Help us to praise;

Father, all-glorious,
O'er all victorious,
Come and reign over us,
Ancient of days.

- 2 Come, thou Incarnate Word,
Gird on thy mighty sword;
Our prayer attend;
Come, and thy people bless,
And give thy word success;
Spirit of holiness!
On us descend.

- 1 God bless our native land!
Firm may she ever stand,
Through storm and night;
When the wild tempests rave,
Ruler of winds and wave!
Do thou our country save,
By thy great might.
- 2 For her our prayer shall rise
To God, above the skies;
On him we wait;
Thou, who art ever nigh,
Guardian, with watchful eye,
To thee aloud we cry,—
God save the State!

- 1 My country! 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died!
Land of the pilgrims' pride!
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring!
- 2 My native country, thee,—
Land of the noble, free,—
Thy name—I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills:
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.
- 3 Our fathers' God! to thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing:

Let Us Pray.

ANON.

"Evening, and morning, and at noon will I pray."—Psa. 55: 17.

E. S. LORENZ.

1. Come to the morn-ing pray'r, Come let us kneel and pray; Pray'r is the Christian pilgrim's staff, To walk with God all day.
2. At noon beneath the Rock Of Ages, rest and pray; Sweet is the shel-ter from the heat When the sun smites by day.
3. At evening shut thy door, Round the home altar pray; And finding there the house of God At heav'n's gate close the day.
4. When mid-night veils our eyes, O, it is sweet to say: I sleep but my heart waketh, Lord, With thee to watch and pray.

This musical score is for a four-part setting of the hymn 'Let Us Pray'. It is written in 4/4 time and has a key signature of one sharp (F#). The lyrics are written below the musical staves. The score includes both a vocal melody and a bass accompaniment.

Come, come, let us pray, Come, come, let us pray! Pray'r is the Christian pilgrim's staff, To walk with God all day.
Come, come, let us pray, Come, come, let us pray! Sweet is the shel-ter from the heat When the sun smites by day.
Come, come, let us pray, Come, come, let us pray! And finding there the house of God At heav'n's gate close the day.
Come, come, let us pray, Come, come, let us pray! I sleep, but my heart waketh, Lord, With thee to watch and pray.

This block contains the continuation of the musical score for 'Let Us Pray'. It follows the same format as the previous block, with a vocal melody and bass accompaniment in 4/4 time and one sharp key signature. The lyrics are repeated for the second system.

"And he led them forth by the right way that they might go to a city of habitation."—Psa. 107: 7.

J. M.

JOHN MCPHERSON.

1. I am sure I shall see Je-sus when I cross death's sea, And the thought fills my soul with joy;
 2. As a-down this vale of sor-row naught but care I know, And my life seems a drear-y day;
 3. I can al-most hear the sing-ing of my loved ones there, As they wait for me o'er the way;

For there healed are all dis-eases, and I'll hap-py be, For no sin will its bliss annoy.
 But I know a glad to-mor-row—qui-et wa-ters flow—When I cross to a rest for aye.
 To God's prom-ises I'm elinging, and his cross I'll bear, Till I cross to the realms of day.

CHORUS.

Sav-ior come, lead me home, For the way is bright if thou art near,
 Sav-ior come, lead me home, if thou art near;

Christmas. C. M.

From GEORGE FREDERICK HANDEL. 1685—1759.

1. Mor - tals, a - wake, with an - gels join, And chant the sol - emn lay; Joy,
2. In heaven the rapturous song be - gan, And sweet ser - aph - ic fire Through love and grat - i - tude com - bine To hail th' auspicious day, To hail th' auspicious day.

all the shin - ing re - gions ran, And strung and tuned the lyre, And strung and tuned the lyre.

3 Swift, through the vast expanse, it flew,
And loud the echo rolled;
The theme, the song, the joy was new,
'Twas more than heaven could hold.

4 Down through the portals of the sky
Th' impetuous torrent ran;
And angels rushed, with eager joy,
To bear the news to man.

We Have Found Him.

E. D. MUND.

Trusting Jesus Every Day.

C. H. A.

"Whoso trusteth in the Lord, happy is he."—Prov. 16: 20.

C. HARRY ANDERS.

1. Trusting Je - sus ev - 'ry day, Makes the way bright and clear; Knowing that he hears me pray,
 2. Foes may hate and friends forsake, Je - sus loves just the same; He for me my sins did take,
 3. If his love so warm and true, Draws me near to his side, Faith in him will bear me through,
 4. When he calls me to my home, As the earth fades from sight, I will an - swer, "Lord I come!"

CHORUS.

Rifts the clouds, quells my fear. Trusting Je - sus ev - 'ry day, Trusting Je - sus all the
 He for me bore the shame.
 There can no ill be - tide.
 Ev - en - tide will be light. ev - 'ry day,
